Do I need to have specific skills?

- Good verbal communication skills with a friendly manner.
- Ability to interact positively with supporters.
- Client and customer focused.
- Willing to learn and develop within the role.
- An understanding of the causes of homelessness and its impact.
- Genuine interest in and commitment to St Mungo's work and client group.
- An understanding of and commitment to diversity & equality.

What you'll get when you sign up

- A St Mungo's t-shirt and collection bucket, so you look the part on the day
- A full briefing ahead of the collection, including top tips about how to make as much money as possible!
- A member of the fundraising team who will be on hand to support you and answer any questions about our work

How you'll make a difference

Last year, our outreach teams worked with 11,453 people who were sleeping on the streets. We also provided specialist healthcare, training and employment teams dedicated to helping people recover from their experiences and really turn their lives around for good. . Our aim is help every person we meet to recover and rebuild their lives.

The money you raise could help provide counselling to 2 people affected by homelessness, to support their mental health and begin their recovery journey
