

Ending homelessness.
Rebuilding lives.

Art and Craft Volunteer (female only)

What will I be doing?

As an Art and Craft volunteer you will be supporting clients at your service to engage in art activities, in a casual setting, encouraging them to socialise in the group and to create something. This activity would enable our clients to express themselves through art and improve their manual dexterity as well as cognitive function skills.

In this role, you will be supporting us with all or some of the following tasks:

- Coming up with art and craft activities each week that meet the needs of the group.
- supporting clients to take part in activities
- Supporting staff in your service to buy in relevant materials needed for different projects.
- Adhere to St Mungo's Policies and Procedures at all times.
- Promote St Mungo's work in an appropriate manner.
- Actively promote equality, diversity and inclusion among staff, fellow volunteers and clients.

Where/ When will I be volunteering?

See this role's advert for more information on location and time commitment.

Do I need to have any specific skills?

- Experience of, or an interest in, leading art groups.
- Confidence in leading a group with staff present.
- Client and customer focused.
- A friendly personality, good interpersonal skills, enthusiasm and motivation.
- Willing to learn and develop within the role.
- Collaborative with good communication skills.
- An understanding of the causes of homelessness and its impact.
- Genuine interest in and commitment to St Mungo's work and client group.
- An understanding of and commitment to diversity & equality.

We particularly welcome applicants with experience of using and moving on from support services.
